Inactive Men-at-Arms:

Distaff:

Notes: Please be aware that there are only two members of each unit added to the Continental Line Officer's Mess Yahoo group. Those members are the Unit Commander and the Second/Adjutant. If your unit would like a specific person other than the Commander or Second/Adjutant added to the Officer's Mess, please make note of it on this census and designate who should not be added (Unit Commander or Second/Adjutant). Once again, only two members from each unit will have access to the Officer's Mess.

Active Men-at-Arms are classified as any member of your unit who carries a musket (saber, artillery crew, etc.) and has been to an event in the last three years.

Inactive Men-at-Arms are classified as any member of your unit who carries a musket (saber, artillery crew, etc.) and has not been to an event in the last three years.

Distaff are classified as members filling any role other than the above listed roles. Active/inactive status does not need to be classified.

While an accurate headcount of your members is appreciated, an approximate one will certainly be acceptable. The Continental Line is simply trying to get a rough idea of the number of people that belong to the member units in our organization. Your assistance in acquiring this statistic is greatly appreciated!
